A Full House in the Clinic

Early in December, a team from Clinicians of the World arrived for a time of service in remote areas of Grand-Goave as well as our own Thozin medical clinic. Clinicians of the World was founded by Dr. Rowlens Melduni, a Haitian-American cardiologist who has a heart for Grand-Goave. The team consisted of 13 doctors, physician assistants, and nurses along with a support staff of 7. While the organization is based out of Rochester, Minnesota, team members were from a myriad of different states

They conducted medical clinics in the mountains as well as with local orphans.

The busyness continued in the clinic with Tammy Groder and Angela inventorying all of the clinic's medical supplies. It did not stop there; some challenging cases came up for Angela as well. We were grateful for the help of the Sri Lankan UN medical staff who came to our aid. Nine of our students were also able to receive dental care at the UN camp in Leogane.

including North Carolina, Colorado, Georgia, and others.

Hope...the beginning of change

Construction Updates

A new septic tank and cover were poured the week before Christmas with outdoor pipes being laid to connect to it. Some rough piping has also been placed in the new medical and dental rooms. These rooms had their doors and windows fabricated and installed. The work in Thozin is certainly coming together!
